PANEL OVERVIEW

WCM of LA, LLC is a panel of attorneys with immense and varied backgrounds in the field of workers' compensation litigation. Our team is exclusively dedicated to the successful mediation of workers' compensation claims across the state of Louisiana. Our panel represents nearly 50 years of workers' compensation experience, knowledge and "know how". We have panel attorneys whose practices were dedicated solely to representing employers and their insurers, and we have attorneys whose practices have been substantially focused on the representation of injured employees who fall under the jurisdiction of the State of Louisiana. We are confident that all of our attorneys are uniquely qualified to assess, evaluate and mediate your next workers' compensation claim.

Our attorneys stand ready to mediate your next workers' compensation claim, regardless of issues and settings. We are available by appointment and will handle mediations at times that are convenient to the parties—even if the weekend is the only available time.

We are dedicated to a fair and reasonable resolution of all workers' compensation cases!

CONTACT INFORMATION

WCM of LA, LLC can be contacted by telephone, email or fax. Our team will make every effort to coordinate and schedule your next mediation in the most convenient manner possible.

PANEL ATTORNEYS

Brian K. Abels is a founding member of Workers Compensation Mediators of Louisiana, LLC, and a partner in the law firm of Boyer, Hebert & Abels, LLC. He has been litigating workers compensation claims since his admission to the Louisiana bar in 1997. His extensive workers compensation practice has taken him to every OWC district in Louisiana. Brian is admitted to practice in all Louisiana State Courts, as well as the Louisiana Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of the United States District Courts and the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeal. He was also recently honored with admission to practice before the United States Supreme Court. Brian is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association, American Bar Association, Baton Rouge Bar Association, 21st Judicial District Court Bar Association, and the Louisiana City Attorneys Association.

Mark D. Boyer is a founding member of the law firm of Boyer, Hebert & Abels, LLC, where the majority of his practice is dedicated to workers' compensation litigation. Mr. Boyer has litigated workers' compensation cases in every district of the State of Louisiana and has been a presenter at various workers' compensation seminars and workshops across the state. He is a 1996 graduate of Louisiana Tech University—obtaining a B.S. in Chemical Engineering. He obtained his J.D. from Loyola University School of Law in 1999. Mr. Boyer is admitted to practice before all Louisiana State Courts, the Louisiana Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of the United States District Courts, and the United States 5th Circuit Court of Appeals. He was also recently bestowed the honor of being admitted before the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Boyer is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association, the Baton Rouge Bar Association and the 21st Judicial District Bar Association. He currently resides in Denham Springs, Louisiana with his wife and two children.

Thomas A. Budetti practices law “Of Counsel” with the law firm Domengeaux, Wright, Roy and Edwards out of Lafayette, Louisiana, where he concentrates his practice to the area of Louisiana workers' compensation. Mr. Budetti has been litigating workers compensation cases since his admission to the Louisiana bar in 1988. Mr. Budetti has represented both the injured worker as well as the employer/insurer during his twenty plus years as an attorney. Mr. Budetti has spoken at Continuing Legal Education seminars for the National Business Institute on Louisiana workers' compensation law. Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Budetti was employed by a major national workers compensation insurer in their legal department where he focused almost exclusively on Louisiana workers' compensation claims and litigation. Mr. Budetti is a 1985 graduate of the Florida State University where he maintained a full academic scholarship and earned a B.S. from the College of Communication. Mr. Budetti is also a 1988 graduate of the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University where he attained the degree of Juris Doctor. Mr. Budetti is admitted to practice in all Louisiana State Courts, as well as the Louisiana Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of the United States District Courts. Mr. Budetti is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association, American Bar Association and the Lafayette Parish Bar Association. Mr. Budetti also serves as the Magistrate-Judge for the City of Youngsville.

Ted Williams is a panel attorney and mediator for Workers' Compensation Mediators of Louisiana, LLC. Ted is a 1990 graduate of Emory University and a 1993 graduate of the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center. His law practice has been dedicated to litigating workers' compensation claims since his admission to the Louisiana bar in 1993. Ted's practice was dedicated to defending employers and insurance carriers from 1993 to 2002. Since 2002, Ted has been a solo practitioner exclusively representing injured employees in workers' compensation claims. Ted is a member of the Baton Rouge Bar Association, Louisiana State Bar Association, and a past chair of the Baton Rouge Bar Association's workers' compensation section.
